

The Powers of God

Is anything impossible for the Lord? —Genesis 18:14a

The Lord will reign forever and ever! —Exodus 15:18

Then Moses said, “Please, let me see Your glory.” He said, “I will cause all My goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim the name ‘the Lord’ before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.” But He added, “You cannot see My face, for humans cannot see Me and live.” —Exodus 33:18–20

Lord God, You have begun to show Your greatness and Your strong hand to Your servant, for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can perform deeds and mighty acts like Yours? —Deuteronomy 3:24

The heavens, indeed the highest heavens, belong to the Lord your God, as does the earth and everything in it. —Deuteronomy 10:14

See now that I alone am He; there is no god but Me. I bring death and I give life; I wound and I heal. No one can rescue anyone from My power. —Deuteronomy 32:39

Do not boast so proudly, or let arrogant words come out of your mouth, for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and actions are weighed by Him. —1 Samuel 2:3

He guards the steps of His faithful ones, but the wicked perish in darkness, for a person does not prevail by his own strength. Those who oppose the Lord will be shattered; He will thunder in the heavens against them. The Lord will judge the ends of the earth. He will give power to His king; He will lift up the horn of His anointed. —1 Samuel 2:9–10

Humans do not see what the Lord sees, for humans see what is visible, but the Lord sees the heart. —1 Samuel 16:7b

But will God indeed live on earth? Even heaven, the highest heaven, cannot contain You, much less this temple I have built. —1 Kings 8:27

The Powers of God

For the Lord is great and highly praised; He is feared above all gods. For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the Lord made the heavens. Splendor and majesty are before Him; strength and joy are in His place. Ascribe to the Lord, families of the peoples, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength. Ascribe to the Lord the glory of His name; bring an offering and come before Him. Worship the Lord in the splendor of His holiness. —1 Chronicles 16:25–29

Yours, Lord, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the splendor and the majesty, for everything in the heavens and on earth belongs to You. Yours, Lord, is the kingdom, and You are exalted as head over all. Riches and honor come from You, and You are the ruler of everything. Power and might are in Your hand, and it is in Your hand to make great and to give strength to all. Now therefore, our God, we give You thanks and praise Your glorious name. But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? For everything comes from You, and we have given You only what comes from Your own hand. —1 Chronicles 29:11–14

Lord, God of our ancestors, are You not the God who is in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand, and no one can stand against You. —2 Chronicles 20:6b

God is wise and all-powerful. Who has opposed Him and come out unharmed? —Job 9:4

He reveals mysteries from the darkness and brings the deepest darkness into the light. He makes nations great, then destroys them; He enlarges nations, then leads them away. —Job 12:22–23

God thunders wondrously with His voice; He does great things that we cannot comprehend. —Job 37:5

The Almighty—we cannot reach Him—He is exalted in power! He will not violate justice and abundant righteousness. —Job 37:23

I know that You can do anything and no plan of Yours can be thwarted. —Job 42:2

The Powers of God

The Lord is in His holy temple; the Lord—His throne is in heaven. His eyes watch; His gaze examines everyone. —Psalms 11:4

Ascribe to the Lord, you heavenly beings, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength. Ascribe to the Lord the glory due His name; worship the Lord in the splendor of His holiness. —Psalms 29:1–2

The counsel of the Lord stands forever, the plans of His heart from generation to generation. —Psalms 33:11

You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your presence. —Psalms 90:8

The Lord reigns! He is robed in majesty; the Lord is robed, enveloped in strength. The world is firmly established; it cannot be shaken. Your throne has been established from the beginning; You are from eternity. Lord, Your testimonies are completely reliable; holiness adorns Your house for all the days to come. —Psalms 93:1–2, 5

My days are like a lengthening shadow, and I wither away like grass. But You, Lord, are enthroned forever; Your fame endures to all generations. —Psalms 102:11–12

Long ago You established the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands. They will perish, but You will endure; all of them will wear out like clothing. You will change them like a garment, and they will pass away. But You are the same, and Your years will never end. —Psalms 102:25–27

The Lord has established His throne in heaven, and His kingdom rules over all. —Psalms 103:19

From the rising of the sun to its setting, let the name of the Lord be praised. The Lord is exalted above all the nations, His glory above the heavens. Who is like the Lord our God—the One enthroned on high, who stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth? —Psalms 113:3–6

The Lord does whatever He pleases in heaven and on earth, in the seas and all the depths. —Psalms 135:6

The Powers of God

Though the Lord is exalted, He takes note of the humble; but He knows the haughty from a distance. —Psalms 138:6

Lord, You have searched me and known me. You know when I sit down and when I stand up; You understand my thoughts from far away. You observe my travels and my rest; You are aware of all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue, You know all about it, Lord. —Psalms 139:1–4

Where can I go to escape Your Spirit? Where can I flee from Your presence? If I go up to heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, You are there. If I fly on the wings of the dawn and settle down on the western horizon, even there Your hand will lead me; Your right hand will hold on to me. If I say, “Surely the darkness will hide me, and the light around me will be night”—even the darkness is not dark to You. The night shines like the day; darkness and light are alike to You. —Psalms 139:7–12

All You have made will thank You, Lord; the faithful will bless You. They will speak of the glory of Your kingdom and will declare Your might, informing all people of Your mighty acts and of the glorious splendor of Your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; Your rule is for all generations. The Lord is faithful in all His words and gracious in all His actions. —Psalms 145:10–13

A person’s heart plans his way, but the Lord determines his steps. —Proverbs 16:9

Many plans are in a person’s heart, but the Lord’s decree will prevail. —Proverbs 19:21

The Lord’s lamp sheds light on a person’s life, searching the innermost parts. —Proverbs 20:27

All a person’s ways seem right to him, but the Lord weighs hearts. —Proverbs 21:2

I know that everything God does will last forever; there is no adding to it or taking from it. God works so that people will be in awe of Him. —Ecclesiastes 3:14

For God will bring every act to judgment, including every hidden thing, whether good or evil. —Ecclesiastes 12:14

The Powers of God

The Lord of Armies has sworn: As I have purposed, so it will be; as I have planned it, so it will happen. The Lord of Armies Himself has planned it; therefore, who can stand in its way? It is His hand that is outstretched, so who can turn it back? —
Isaiah 14:24, 27

God is enthroned above the circle of the earth; its inhabitants are like grasshoppers. He stretches out the heavens like thin cloth and spreads them out like a tent to live in. He reduces princes to nothing and makes judges of the earth like a wasteland. They are barely planted, barely sown, their stem hardly takes root in the ground when He blows on them and they wither, and a whirlwind carries them away like stubble. —Isaiah 40:22–24

“I—I am the Lord. Besides Me, there is no Savior. I alone declared, saved, and proclaimed—and not some foreign god among you. So you are My witnesses”—this is the Lord’s declaration—“and I am God. Also, from today on I am He alone, and none can rescue from My power. I act, and who can reverse it?” —Isaiah 43:11–13

By Myself I have sworn; truth has gone from My mouth, a word that will not be revoked: every knee will bow to Me, every tongue will swear allegiance. —Isaiah 45:23

I declare the end from the beginning, and from long ago what is not yet done, saying: My plan will take place, and I will do all My will. —Isaiah 46:10

For just as rain and snow fall from heaven and do not return there without saturating the earth and making it germinate and sprout, and providing seed to sow and food to eat, so My word that comes from My mouth will not return to Me empty, but it will accomplish what I please and will prosper in what I send it to do. —Isaiah 55:10–11

For the High and Exalted One, who lives forever, whose name is Holy, says this: “I live in a high and holy place, and with the oppressed and lowly of spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly and revive the heart of the oppressed.” —Isaiah 57:15

I chose you before I formed you in the womb; I set you apart before you were born. I appointed you a prophet to the nations. —Jeremiah 1:5

The Powers of God

Lord, there is no one like You. You are great; Your name is great in power. Who should not fear You, King of the nations? It is what You deserve. For among all the wise people of the nations and among all their kingdoms, there is no one like You. —Jeremiah 10:6–7

I know, Lord, that a person's way of life is not his own; no one who walks determines his own steps. —Jeremiah 10:23

As for You, Lord, You know me; You see me. You test whether my heart is with You. Drag the wicked away like sheep to slaughter and set them apart for the day of killing. —Jeremiah 12:3

“Am I a God who is only near”—this is the Lord's declaration—“and not a God who is far away? Can a person hide in secret places where I cannot see him?”—the Lord's declaration. “Do I not fill the heavens and the earth?”—the Lord's declaration. —Jeremiah 23:23–24

Oh, Lord God! You Yourself made the heavens and earth by Your great power and with Your outstretched arm. Nothing is too difficult for You! You show faithful love to thousands but lay the fathers' iniquity on their sons' laps after them, great and mighty God whose name is the Lord of Armies, the One great in counsel and powerful in action. Your eyes are on all the ways of the children of men in order to reward each person according to his ways and as the result of his actions. —Jeremiah 32:17–19

“Look, I am the Lord, the God over every creature. Is anything too difficult for Me?” —Jeremiah 32:27

May the name of God be praised forever and ever, for wisdom and power belong to Him. He changes the times and seasons; He removes kings and establishes kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. He reveals the deep and hidden things; He knows what is in the darkness, and light dwells with Him. —Daniel 2:20b–22

The Powers of God

I am pleased to tell you about the miracles and wonders the Most High God has done for me. How great are His miracles, and how mighty His wonders! His kingdom is an eternal kingdom, and His dominion is from generation to generation. —Daniel 4:2–3

Let all humanity be silent before the Lord, for from His holy dwelling He has roused Himself. —Zechariah 2:13

Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away. —Matthew 24:35

Jesus came near and said to them, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth.” —Matthew 28:18

Nothing will be impossible with God. —Luke 1:37b

It is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of a letter in the law to drop out. —Luke 16:17b

For the love of Christ compels us, since we have reached this conclusion, that One died for all, and therefore all died. And He died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for the One who died for them and was raised. —2 Corinthians 5:14–15

Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. —1 Timothy 1:17

For the word of God is living and effective and sharper than any double-edged sword, penetrating as far as the separation of soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. No creature is hidden from Him, but all things are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give an account. —Hebrews 4:12–13

Dear friends, don't overlook this one fact: With the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day. —2 Peter 3:8

The Powers of God

Now to Him who is able to protect you from stumbling and to make you stand in the presence of His glory, without blemish and with great joy, to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority before all time, now and forever. Amen. —Jude 1:24–25
